Copy of a letter dated the 27th December 1946, from D.K. Chowdhry, I.N.A. Calcutta, to Mr. D.Y. Dev, 2, Keeling Lane, New Delhi (Intercepted at New Delhi Post Office on 30. 12. 1946 by Sub-Inspector Ganga Prasad). Original passed.

I am not in the least surprised that you will forget me. Naturally, big leaders seldom remember their followers, but fortunately I came across a leader like "Netaji Bose" who always thinks himself as one from the rank and file of the poor peasantry of India like our "Father of the Nation" - I mean Mahatma Gandhi.

What is going on today in Allenberry does not forbade any good symptom. Our service may last only for a few days. Mr. Prasad, the hard-boiled Marwari, is highly prejudiced by provincial discrimination. I think you might have known from Mr. Verma, who is the only man to look after us. But he is totally surrounded by a gang of scoundrels belonging to the group of Mr. Prasad who talks much but does little.

Anyhow you should not forget me.
India is not going to be free by this Constituent Assembly. We will have to fight out two devils at a time.

.....I talked to Pandit Nehru, Sardar Patel and others. The form or told me he had a down for selection for the diplomatic service, but advised me to take another job in the meantime. Regarding the other job, I've formally applied for two in administrative capacities, one in Bombay and another in Ahmedabad. The latter post is with the Sourabhan Mills owned by a man whose daughter is the well-known Hirdalab Sourabhan, a prominent woman in Congress, who personally when I was in Delhi, asked me to apply. I told Patel about the small part I was offered in the Textile Corporation (Birla's concern) and he promised to speak to Birla so that I could get something better. Dr. John Matthai told me to accept the job in textiles as Birla's was a very small firm. But I'll not on ly accept this job, failing all else. Fortunately Eric D' Costa has given me un til the end of Feb. to decide. Mr. Vaz is always being over cautious in his advice for me. But I think I can tackle any job-which of course doesn't require any technical knowledge which I might not possess- so I shall not be deterred. And regarding the post of Joint General Secretary in the I.M.A. Relief office in Delhi, I spoke to Col. Habib, who had also been asked to take up the job, and we finally decided to have one Joint Sect. only, and so I didn't stay on in Delhi for the other post, leaving him to carry on. In Delhi I attended a session of the Constituent Assembly once. It was a 'tame session' when the question of setting up of the States Negotiating Committee was being discussed. But I heard Mr. K.M. Munshi - a famous lawyer who might have defended me had I been tried-and Pandit Nehru speak, among others of the less importance.

The political horizon to me, is mantled with dark clouds. On ly a complete change either from the Congress or the Muslim League can end the existing dead-lock. God help this unfortunate country.

All the best for 1947.

Your loving son

Jai Hind,

It is a great honour to be invited to the 3rd Plenary Session of the All India Forward Bloc Conference. Unfortunately circumstances debar me to attend the Conference in person; so I am sending the following message of goodwill and cheer to the Conference :-

We should not forget the basic principle of I.N.A. that is, Unity, Faith and Sacrifice. Indians, irrespective of caste and creed, must unite. Indians, whether he is Hindu, Muslim, Sikh or Christian, must have faith in each other. Every Indian for the Independence of India, if required, must sacrifice his or her life. Last words of farewell to the front-going soldiers by NETAJI were -

"GIVE ME BLOOD AND I SHALL GIVE YOU FREEDOM"

Jai Hind,

Yours sincerely,

There is a chance of my coming to Travancore to attend the State Congress at Nagacoil some time in March - perhaps beginning. I don't know whether you will still be in India then. I

I haven't yet decided what I should do - I mean permanently. I don't like the way things are going here - the closer one goes, the dirtier they are. If we meet, we will talk personally.

I note that you met Menon. I haven't been able to meet him so far. What about Rao? Have you written to him? It is strange that I have no letter from him. He used to write weekly - and now suddenly for the last one month no letter - although I have written several letters.

I hope yourself and family are keeping well.

When do you really intend to leave?

Bootha, I understand, is in Singapore working somewhere.

There is nothing else to write with best wishes.

JAI HIND!

My dear Uncle,

.....I understand that action will be taken by Government within the next few days for allocation of vacancies in Government services to I.A. & I.M.S. personnel. I would have been more confident of the I.A.A. getting what they fixed a definite percentage for us. Since they have not done so, I have to work up everything. Hence I have decided not to go to Calcutta, but to stay here and see to it that our officials and men are not missed by default. However much I might regret missing Calcutta this time, I definitely do not want to take any risk for absorption of I.A.A. Lakshmi has returned from Delhi with a heavy dose of malaria and so, she is not able to go to Calcutta either. Mr. Annu, who has been lately had an attack of dengue and will be returning to Delhi by air on 20th Jan. Major Gward says that he is unable to go to Calcutta, owing to family circumstances. Under these circumstances, I'm afraid that no senior officers I.A.A. would visit Calcutta. I hope it will not be misunderstood in any way.

Yours sincerely,

4/- J.C. ALAGAPPAN.

P.S. I have read letters from the Defence Secy on Delhi regarding that the Govt. of India are unable to modify orders already issued.

Dear Bhasy,

It's very sweet of you to always remember me.
I am glad to hear that you haven't changed at all, I too, will always remain that same old Ankana you met two years ago.

Thank you very much for your X'mas card. I got one from Abid too. I think they were brought to me by an Indian Doctor. I met him yesterday, I couldn't quite catch his name. He invited me to have lunch with him at his place to morrow after noon and I'm going to meet a very clever man by the name of Swami.

How are you keeping on? I was told you were working for Mr. Bose's brother and so staying at the same place with Abid. If you see Abid just give ~~my~~ him my best regards, and ask him whether he ~~has~~ has received the money I sent him (2000/- Kicals in Siamese money). I gave the money to Mr. Xavier as Abid requested me to.

I'll write you again soon. Write me if you have

Good Luck,

Let the preaching of Netaji and thousands and thousands of martyrs who have been perished in the mountain-range of Imphal and Akyab, inspire us today to restore peace in India, — after uniting the Hindus & Muslims. In these days of peril of this great nation, we should follow the ideals of Netaji and those martyrs who lost their lives for the freedom of India. Let God give — strength and courage amongst all of us, so that, we may be organised in the spirit of "Unity, faith and sacrifice". We pray for the revival of that inspiration which will bring strength and courage by dint of which we shall attain Freedom

It is really good that you are with Mr. Sarat Chandra Bose. You will be having contacts with prominent personages. In connection with the birthday celebration of Netaji, a friend of mine Lt. Ramji, late of the I.N.A. would be going over to Calcutta. He has promised to look you up. You will also be very busy in that connection. I am glad that Calcutta has returned to normal. Recently there was some outburst here but now everything is ok. Our locality has not so far been affected at all. And so there is no cause for any anxiety on that ground. When you go home, please convey my regards to all.

Please do write to me at your convenience. Viswappa also has received your letter. Samodaran has not been fixed up anywhere. He hopes to get fixed up soon. Same is the case with Appa. Best wishes from all here. You can write to my office address.

Thank you very much for your kind note and I am glad that in spite of the heavy pressure of work, you found time to write to me. I was able to gather all information about you from Sankaran's letters and also from Sankaran's letters. I was expecting you in Bombay one of these days and I was anxiously awaiting that. It is a long time we met. I hope we would be able to meet again in the nearest future.

We are all keeping well. My family is not in Bombay. They have been away since July '45. and I have been on the look out for a convenient block so that I can bring them down to Bombay without any more delay.
But the housing problem here is so acute that nothing definite can be said for some more months. I intend taking leave and I would have been extremely glad to look you up there. But leave is out of question for another two or three months, since I am busy with the Indian Year Book.
If it won't inconvenience you, why don't you return to Calcutta via Bombay. We shall all be very glad to have you here for a day or two at least. I shall convey your regards to my brother when I write next.

It was announced in the Press that Lt. Col. Bhonsle was coming to Calcutta in connection with the Netaji Birthday Anniversary Celebration. On 24.1.47 in connection with the birth observance of Netaji Birthday week he ~~spoke~~ at a meeting organised by the Ashutosh College School at the College Hall. He was for a describes how the I.N.A. was for and how the people of the far East fought for freedom under the leadership of Subhas Chandra Bose. He adds that I.N.A. men have no faith in meetings and conferences held in London or Delhi and believed that freedom could be achieved not by compromise but by the path shown by following the I.N.A. men were waiting for the day when the leaders like Nehru and others come out of the Interim Govt and open the fight

F. J.N. BAHDURI

Mr. J.N. BAHDURI is a good friend of mine. We have known each other for a large number of years. He was practising as an Advocate and Solicitor in Telok Anson, about 60 miles South of Ipoh from 1929 to 1941. After the evacuation of Telok Anson by the British Forces, he was elected as Chairman of a composite Committee, consisting of all the communities, to look after the welfare of the people there. I believe this was the only case where a joint committee functioned in the initial stages of the occupation - in all other places, each community had a separate committee to look after ~~him~~ its needy.

He was the chairman of the Telok Anson branch of the I.I.L. until he came to Burma in August 1944. During his tenure of office he was responsible for developing an agricultural settlement in a place near Telok Anson called Sungai Manik. A large area, of what was originally almost a virgin jungle, was opened up and a number of Indian families settled down their for cultivation, of rice. He took a very keen and personal interest in this scheme.

He was also the prime mover in bringing into existence a distress relief home for all the communities in Telok Anson.

In August 1944 he arrived in Rangoon and was appointed Manager of the Azad Hind Bank.

When the I.I.L. H.Q.'s. evacuated from RANGOON in about 1945, Mr. BAHDURI remained in charge of the civilians attached to the Rangoon H.Q.

Relief was given to thousands of Indians, sick and destitute, and a number of orphans were housed and educated there. Although a number of relief camps were opened all over MALAYA, I believe no other camp could compare with it in efficiency. This camp as all other relief camps were run for sometime on voluntary donations from the local public until the I.I.L. HQ took them over.

Dr. LUKSHMEYAH also served as director of the Volunteers Training Camp at K.L. since its inception in January 1943 to about Sept 1943. He was responsible for the general management of the camp, rations, clothing etc for the recruits and their morse training. A sense of unity and nationalism was intended to be created. There was only one common kitchen, and the recruits took turns in kitchen duties. Every attempt was made to eliminate religious and provincial prejudices. The training of the recruits were in the hands of the officers and men of the I.N.A. No Japanese instructors were ever engaged.

Between May 1943 and June 1944 he was not holding any office in the I.I.L. In June or July 1944 he came to RANGOON and became Gen. Secy at the H.Q. He returned to MALAYA in Oct 1944 on account of his son's illness and was then posted as Gen. Secy of the I.I.L. H.Q. SINGAPORE in which office he continued till the peace.

While he was Chairman of the I.I.L., K.L. Dr. LUKSHMEYAH, by his appeal to the local public raised funds and received donations in kind, such as food-stuffs, medicine and clothing for distribution amongst the prisoners of war at K.L. No distinction was made whether a person had volunteered to join the I.N.A. or preferred to remain a prisoner of war. It is necessary to emphasise this point as there seems to be a feeling that Indians in MALAYA did nothing for those Indians who remained prisoners of war.

D. S.C. GOHO

Mr. S.C. GOHO of SINGAPORE and his family are known to me for a number of years. When I arrived in MALAYA in 1932 Mr. GOHO had the reputation of being a leading Lawyer in MALAYA.

Mr. GOHO was a member of the Goodwill Mission which went to TOKYO in March 1942. He became the first Chairman of the I.I.L., SINGAPORE. He continued as Chairman till March 1943 when he resigned.

By the latter part of 1942 Mr. GOHO had lost all faith in the Japanese - he thought they were very insincere. He was very outspoken and the Japanese authorities became more and more antagonistic to him. Since his resignation, so far as I am aware, he took no part in the I.I.L. movement.

E. DEB NATH DAS

I met Mr. DEBNATH DAS for the first time in June 1942 during the Bangkok Conference. He appeared to me to be a very impulsive nature. He was held in esteem by the poorer Indians in BANGKOK.

I met him again when I arrived at RANGOON in April 1944. At that time he was acting General Secretary in the I.I.L. HQ. I met him off and on in his office until I was appointed Secretary of the Finance Dept. in August 1942. We had no discussions of any importance on the political problem.

When Mr. LUKSHMEYAH became Gen. Secy in July 1944 Mr. DEBNATH DAS so far as I remember, returned to BANGKOK. I ~~cannot~~ cannot remember how long he stayed there. However on the day I returned to RANGOON in Dec. 44 he left for BANGKOK by the same plane, and returned after six weeks or so. He left RANGOON again in March 45 accompanying some of the Jhansi girls. I met him in May 1945 at BANGKOK. Since I returned to MALAYA in June 1945 I have had no information about him.

Mr. THIVY returned to IPOH sometime in 1933 and practised there till the war. We used to meet each other most often in Court. I think I visited him in his house on only two or three occasions during 1933 - 41, and he also did not come to my house on more than two or three occasions. Mr. THIVY was known as a very sincere and honest man and was very well respected in IPOH.

Mr. THIVY was a member of the I.I.L. in 1942 when I was Chairman. On my resignation in early May 1942 Mr. THIVY was selected chairman. While I was in IPOH in the first few months in 1942 Mr. THIVY did not take a very active part in the I.I.L. affairs. I have no personal knowledge of his activities as chairman as I was in SINGAPORE from May 1942 to the beginning of March 1943.

In May 1943 I resumed my practice in IPOH. At the end of the same month Mr. THIVY went to SINGAPORE as Chairman of the I.I.L. MALAYA, and he stayed there, first a chairman, and then as General-Secy. I.I.L. H.Q. till Dec. 1944.

I had been to SINGAPORE during this period, so far as I remember, only once. I have again no knowledge of his activities in SINGAPORE.

In Dec. 1944 Mr. THIVY came to RANGOON and was in charge of the I.I.L. there. On a few occasions I had discussion with him regarding office work.

In April 1945 Mr. THIVY left RANGOON along with others. He reached Bangkok in the middle of May 1945 and returned to MALAYA sometime in August 1945. I left BANGKOK early in June and did not meet him till August '45 when he arrived at IPOH. Mr. THIVY was not in good health and his future programme was uncertain. A few days after he arrived I was told that he had left for SINGAPORE and since then I have not heard of him.

C. DR. M. K. LUKSHMEYAH

I came to know Dr. M. K. LUKSHMEYAH for the first time in March 1942. He was present at the Chairman's meeting in April 1942 and also at the Bangkok Conference. He took part in the April 1942 conference - the general nature of which I have set out in my note on Mr. N. RAGHAVAN.

Dr. LUKSHMEYAH was chairman of the I.I.L., KUALA LUMPUR until March 1943, when he became Chairman of I.I.L., MALAYA. I believe he continued in that office for a month or so and was succeeded by Mr. J. A. THIVY.

Under his direction a relief camp was opened in August or Sept 1942 at K. LUMPUR. This camp functioned until the occupation of K.L. by the British forces. I understand this relief camp has now been taken over by the Govt.

work without their assurances being finally and solemnly given.

During the few months that Mr. RAGHAVAN was a member of the council of Action his relations with the Japanese side became very strained. He was, however, of opinion that the organisation should continue - its activities being confined to social and relief work. This view was endorsed by all the chairmen of the State Branches in MALAYA.

Soon after the Council of Action ceased to function, a Youth Movement, as it was called, sprung up in SINGAPORE. I believe that this was instigated by the Kikan. The Youth Movement indulged in abuses of all those who had then been holding important offices in the I.I.L. Although names were not mentioned it was obvious that the references were to Mr. N. RAGHAVAN and Mr. S.C. GOHO of SINGAPORE. This Youth Movement, however, died a natural death in two or three months - the man of the Indians having kept away from it.

Mr. RAGHAVAN resigned the Presidentship of the Malaya organisation early in March 1943 - he having found it impossible to continue in that office because of Japanese hostility, and he also felt that he could be of much assistance to the countrymen in MALAYA at that stage.

Mr. RAGHAVAN rejoined the movement in April 1944. In July 1944 he became Minister of Finance and in that capacity he continued till peace.

My own view is that Mr. RAGHAVAN throughout live to uphold the best interests of our country and countrymen and was not afraid to come to a clash with the Japanese if he felt the honour of Indians was at stake. I think his services have been invaluable to the Indians in MALAYA at any rate and he was able to prevent the utilisation of Indian man-power for the Japanese Army. Only on one point, he, as all his other colleagues, failed, that was the utilisation of Indian labour in the construction of the Siam-Burma Railway. He lodged a number of protests with the Japanese. Unfortunately they had no effect and the labourers were mostly taken away from the rubber estates between Nov. 42 to Jan. or Feb. 43. This was the time when the Council of Action was having innumerable difficulties with the Japanese authorities leading finally to the resignation of Mr. RAGHAVAN.

B. J.A. THIVY

I met Mr. THIVY as a student in LONDON in 1929. He and I were both in the King's College, LONDON, studying for the LLB course. I was taking up the day course, and he the evening course. We met only in the Latin classes which were specially held for those who had never studied Latin. I think he attended only 2 lessons and then gave up the LLB studies. After that I hardly met him in ENGLAND.

APPENDIX 'A' TO REPORT No. 150 ON TC/73

A. N. RAGHAVAN (TC/1)

I met Mr. RAGHAVAN for the first time in 1932 after my arrival in MALAYA. I have been practising as an Advocate and Solicitor at IPOH till the out-break of the war. During this period I had met Mr. RAGHAVAN on a few occasions - not more than twice a year on the average. I met him when I came to PENANG on a holiday or on business or when he came to IPOH or passed through IPOH. I came into closer contact with him since the war.

In the early month's of 1942 but after the fall of SINGAPORE I had some discussions with Mr. RAGHAVAN on the question as to what we Indians should do in the circumstances. In March 1942 an invitation was extended to Indian leaders in MALAYA to visit TOKYO. Mr. RAGHAVAN was one of the delegation. This delegation was called a "goodwill mission". It was deliberately so called because we were not anxious to start a political movement unless we were satisfied that such a movement was necessary and would be for the good of INDIA.

By the time the delegation returned in April 1942, a number of organisations had sprung up in the more important towns in MALAYA. A conference of the Chairmen of these places took place in April 1942. It was felt at that time that an organisation of Indians with branches at all places where there are a fair number of Indians with a central controlling office was necessary to protect the ~~Indians~~ interests of Indians in MALAYA. Thus came into being the Malayan organisation of the I.I.L. Mr. RAGHAVAN was held in very high esteem by the public of MALAYA and all those present requested him to become its president, which office he accepted.

At this conference the question arose whether we should make the I.I.L. into a political organisation or should continue it as merely a social organisation as, in fact, it was at that time. Two different views were expressed at that conference. One was that it was not for us here to start a political movement which might be exploited by the Japanese to their advantage. The other view was that only by having a political movement we would be able to help our countrymen. It was felt at that time that the Japanese may invade INDIA any moment - having regard to the success they had achieved in MALAYA and BURMA. It was felt that by instituting a political movement we might be able to lessen the hardships of our countrymen - if not assist them in achieving freedom. I do not think at that stage anybody had formed very definite views on this question.

By the time the Bangkok conference opened, the general feeling was that we should make the I.I.L. into a political organisation, provided we could do so without loss of self-respect and provided we could further the cause of Indian Independence. The main emphasis, therefore, at the Bangkok Conference was to ask the Japanese Govt. for an unequivocal declaration that they have no territorial, political or economic ambitions in INDIA and that they will leave it to the people of INDIA to decide their own form of government. It was also felt that in order to make the movement effective a national army should be organised. The motive behind this was that as far as possible the burden of fighting for Indian Independence should be on Indians and also prevent the entry of large Japanese forces into INDIA. The conference also adopted a resolution that the Indian National Army should be accorded the same status as that of any other friendly power.

It was expected that the Japanese Govt would give their view on the main resolution passed at the conference. This never materialised. The history of the Council of Action which was constituted at the Bangkok Conference until its breakup in Dec 1942 was one of continuous struggle with the Japanese ambitions in MALAYA for the recognition of their fundamental principles which were laid down at the Bangkok Conference. Mr. RAGHAVAN'S view was that it would be unwise, and, even detrimental to the interests of our country, if we were to organise the army and continue our

13. PERSONALITIES

At Appendix 'A' are reproduced notes written by TC/73 on those personalities with whom he was most acquainted.

14. CONCLUSIONS

TC/73 is a charming well educated, astute lawyer who committed himself to collaboration with the I.I.L. before the fall of SINGAPORE. It is patently obvious that in everything he did he was directed by N.RAGHAVAN (TC/1). His initial appointments, his resignation, his re-entry and posting to RAGHAVAN'S department are examples of his subservience to RAGHAVAN. His note on him in Appendix 'A' is couched in the most cautious terms.

15. He admits that no pressure was ever brought to bear on him and that the ideals and methods of the movement were compatible with his own ways of thought and action. He clearly holds the same views and under interrogation resembled RAGHAVAN in his clever interpretation of his own actions. A classification of BEACK is recommended. He comes within the scope of Jifs to be tried but there is no evidence in this section other than what has been recorded above.

16. Attempts should be made how to locate and interrogate in detail Jifs of a similar breed who remain still "untouched" on the mainland of MALAYA.

DISTRIBUTION LIST 'B'.

examples from other successful "movements". He resigned with other members of the Council of Action in Dec 1942 and he admits that in this decision he was influenced by RAGHAVAN.

8. A PERIOD OF INACTIVITY

Having resigned he returned to IPOH and settled down to resume his practice. He remained in IPOH for almost a year during which period he was not approached by the Japanese and by only a few Indians.

9. TC/73 REJOINS THE I.I.L.

In Apr 44 RAGHAVAN met BOSE in S'PORE to discuss RAGHAVAN'S return to the fold. During the conversation BOSE intimated that TC/73 should also rejoin. On his way back to PENANG RAGHAVAN discussed the matter with TC/73 who then decided to re-enlist. TC/73 states that this decision was influenced by three factors: firstly because of the tremendous enthusiasm prevailing amongst members of the movement at that time; secondly because due to BOSE'S guarantee that he could vouch for Japanese integrity, his fears regarding Japanese action in INDIA were removed and thirdly because RAGHAVAN was also returning to the movement. It is obvious at this stage that TC/73's fortunes were unquestionably linked with those of RAGHAVAN'S.

10. TC/73 TRAVELS TO BURMA

On rejoining the movement he was posted to RANGOON, as Secretary in the Finance Dept. of the H.Q. I.I.L. East Asia, a department headed by RAGHAVAN. He continued in this appointment until Apr 45. During this time he claims that he had very little executive work. The funds were collected by the Netaji Fund Committee, an autonomous body, and were passed by his department into the I.I.L. banking account.

11. THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The functions of the Finance Dept. according to TC/73 were:

- (a) To scrutinise the budgets of the various departments of the I.I.L. and the I.N.A.
- (b) To sanction and allocated funds for a definite period for such departments.

12. TC/73 RETURNS TO MALAYA

In Apr 45 TC/73 joined in the flight from RANGOON, halted two weeks in BANGKOK and eventually returned to IPOH where his wife was lying sick. On 20 Jun 45 he journeyed to S'PORE, reported to BOSE who had very little to say and finally returned to IPOH. Being desirous of going to INDIA he went to PENANG because he had heard that the authorities there were evacuating Indians to INDIA. The immigration authorities passed his application over to this section. TC/73 states that no one has been interrogated in his area.

200 Volunteers in IPOH at this period). He admits that at no time was he coerced into joining this movement. He shared the feelings of most thinking Indians of wanting "to do something". He states that during his tenure of office as Chairman, from Jan 42 to May 42 his work consisted mainly of collecting subscriptions from wealthy Indians to help Indian P.W. and Indians rendered destitute by the Japanese advance. He claims that he never forced anyone to subscribe and that he never gave any propaganda speeches.

4. TC/73 BECOMES SECRETARY OF THE I.I.L. MALAYA

In Apr 42 TC/73 attended the conference in SINGAPORE at which he was elected Secretary of the I.I.L. in MALAYA. He states that by this time the organisation had come to be known as the I.I.L. and certain political objects began to appear in this so called welfare organisation. TC/73 states that at this time the leading members of the organisations knew that although their goal was independence for INDIA the means to this end were not promising due to mistrust of the Japanese which had arisen ~~from~~ from many causes one of which being the Japanese handling of the Chinese in SINGAPORE. The salve they applied to their conscience was that at any rate if they co-operated with the Japanese now they would be in a favourable position to press for a quick hand over by the Japanese once they had occupied INDIA.

5. His appointment as Secretary lasted until Aug 42. He does not elaborate on what is already known of the I.I.L. in MALAYA during this period and as for his own part he attempts to convey the impression that it was mainly welfare combined with Routine Secretarial work.

6. TC/73 BECOMES SECRETARY TO THE COUNCIL OF ACTION.

In Jun 42 TC/73 attended the Bangkok Conference during the course of which he was promoted to Secretary of the Council of Action a promotion due in no small part to the influence of N.RAGHAVAN who appears to have controlled TC/73 in all his decisions throughout his Jif career. He remained in SINGAPORE until the Council of Action was dissolved in Dec 42. He adds nothing to what has already been recorded on this subject by 'S' Sec. CSDIC(I) and his own part is quietly played down making it appear that he was given the job because of his pleasant manners whereas it was due to his own ambitions assisted by N.RAGHAVAN.

7. TC/73's THOUGHTS ~~WEEKLY~~ DURING 1942

He states that the main lines of his reasoning during the first year of the movement were relations with the Japanese, the consequences of a Japanese defeat, the implications of a Japanese victory and the honesty of the movement itself. He claims that he shared with many others their distrust of the Japanese even during the early days. It is obvious that he like many of the other astute lawyers realised too late that the Japanese intended to control the movement. He states that he realised the consequences of a Japanese defeat but adds that he was prepared to stand by what he had done. By the end of 1942 nothing had happened to cause him to think that he had erred on the wrong side, since, he asserts, he did not join for self aggrandizement. Fostering the hope of a Japanese victory resulting in the removal of British control he claims a belief that they would have been of great assistance to their fellow countrymen in softening the Japanese occupation. To support this belief he quotes an oft repeated claim of these high-powered Jifs to wit that the Japanese accorded better treatment to Indians than to other communities. To the touchy (to him) subject of the honesty of the movement TC/73 claims to have given little thought nevertheless in 1942 he was of the opinion that all members were volunteers and that all were in accord over the object of it. He dismisses glaring examples of dishonesty, treachery and brutal coercion by culling

3. HIS HISTORY DURING THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION.

In Jan 42, before the fall of S'PORE, TC/73 accepted to become Chairman of what was shortly to be termed the IPOH Branch of the I.I.L. He states that although he was influenced in his decision by the counsels of other members of the community he was chiefly actuated by a desire to help in the Social and Welfare work which he claims this organisation was at that time carrying out for the benefit of Indian P.W. who were apparently left uncared for by the Japanese. But when I was in Calcutta they were prepared to sell the set from and inclusive of 1941 onwards. I don't want 1936-1941. I have got them. I cannot give you any directions from here but you know the books I want. You can therefore place the order or buy whatever you can.

The books I want are as follows:-

- (1) All India Reporter from January 1942 up to date (I have found out that I have got the 1941 set but it is still unbounded).
- (2) All England Report from January 1941 onwards.
- (3) Law Reports (England) that is Chancery Div., King's Bench, etc. from January 1938 up to date.
- (4) Halsbury's Edition Halsbury all volumes issued after Volume 33.
- (5) English Weekly Notes ~~are~~ all volumes after 1935. These are absolutely essential.

The English Reports prior to 1865 and the Law Times Report and the Times Law Reports are also necessary. But they can wait if you cannot get them in India. Better order the Red or White book for 1946 or 1947 whatever is the latest. It is necessary.

How you will cause them to be brought is left ~~at~~ to you.

I hope you have enjoyed your Holidays and will be fit when you arrive here.

No 29.1.47

Shortly after the arrival of 26.1.47. "Major General" SHAH NAWAZ KHAN and other I.N.A. officers in Calcutta, certain *organisers of the Azad Hind Volunteer Corps met him in order to apprise him of the disruptive tendencies evident in the organisation of the Volunteer Corps. SHAH NAWAZ KHAN stressed the need for unity amongst the members of the Corps and strongly emphasised that they must not identify themselves with any particular party nor dabble in party faction. He declared his unequivocal allegiance to the Indian National Congress and his disagreement with all other political parties, even the Forward Bloc. He pointed out, however, that he will always hold up to the people the lofty ideals of the Indian National Army and said that the I.N.A. personnel will play their role in the final struggle, which he considered inevitable, for the capture of power and the attainment of the complete independence. He believed that sooner or later, the Congress High Command will veer round to this point of view and will call upon all volunteer organisations to emulate the I.N.A.

SHAH NAWAZ KHAN also expressed the above views at the meetings he addressed during the birthday celebrations of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU on 23.1.47 at the University Institute and at 9, Chutarpura Lane, the former meeting having been called by the Forward Bloc students and the latter organised by PRAHLAD MALLIK, PRASANTA DATTA AND SOUREN SEN.

independence under the leadership of Netaji and were asked to give a correct lead to the Students. Col. MAHMOOD AHMED remarked that the British would part with power only when compelled to do so. Referring to the Interim Government he stated that such a Government subservient to the British Imperialist Government cannot achieve freedom. He observed that the battle of Imphal has not only roused consciousness among the people but has instilled a spirit of freedom even into the personnel of the Indian Army and the Police.

D.R. 2318 (c) A reception (10000) 28.1.47 to I.N.A. officers was organised by the Netaji Birthday Celebration Committee on 26.1.47 at Belgachia Villa, 64, Belgachia Road. SARAT CHANDRA BASU presided. About 160 officers of the Rani of Jhansi Brigade, Azad Hind Government and Azad Hind Fauj were present. The President condemned the British for dubbing the I.N.A. as a gang of quislings, and remarked that freedom could never be achieved by negotiations. SHAH NAWAZ stated that the ideal of Netaji was to march on to Delhi and the Red Fort. He regretted the communal disturbances and added that these only helped the British Government. Six tri-coloured flags were displayed at different places in the Villa also 2 half length photos of SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU (one small and another 20 feet long)

The I.N.A. men are waiting for the Day when the big leaders like PANDIT NEHRU and others come out of the Interim Government and open the fight against the British. At No: 5 SHAH NAHAZ said that he was prepared to give a chance to the Constituent Assembly and to wait for a year. If the Constituent Assembly fails to achieve freedom within this period he will ask his countrymen to shed their blood and win freedom's battle through violence. If the British quit India of their own accord, well and good. If not they must be forcibly driven out. At No: 6 COL. DHILLON of the I.N.A. stated that the British are at the root of all troubles in India. He added that the I.N.A. men with the help of others will kick them out of India as soon as the right time comes. The sooner Netaji appears, the better for the people.

Copies of a printed bulletin (No: 1) headed "Calcutta Students speak" published by SAMAR BASU and AJIT KUMAR RAY CHAUDHURI Calcutta City Students' Congress C-15, College Street Market, Calcutta were sold at the meeting. It praises the students for the bravery they displayed during the November and February disturbances and contains a report on the Calcutta City Students Congress Conference held in Calcutta under the auspices of the Law College Unit with SAMAR BASU as president. At this conference resolutions were passed mourning the death of BHUDEB SEN @ NANI SEN, criticising the false nationalism of Anrita Bazar Patrika, warning TUSHAR KANTI GHOSH that the City Students' Congress would, if necessary, break the Sec. 144 to establish the workers' rights, demanding a settlement of the Women's College affairs etc. It also gives a review of the party activities of student workers of the B.P.S.C. units in different colleges. At No: 2 Col. ESHAN QUADR urged the audience to stick to the ideals of "Netaji" in order to throw off the foreign domination and asked the students to sink communal differences. A manuscript poster inscribed "Forget not that the greatest curse is to remain as a slave" was displayed at the meeting. At No: 4 HONBLE described how the I.N.A. was formed and how the people of Far East fought for freedom under the leadership of SUHAS CH. BASU. He added that I.N.A. men have no faith in meetings and conferences held in London or Delhi and believe that freedom can be achieved not by compromise but by following the path shown by Netaji.

COL. HABIBUR RAHAMAN observed that human blood is the price of freedom. Mere hoisting of flags by different organizations, he held, meant nothing until it could be hoisted on the Red Fort or on the Viceregal Lodge. He condemned communalism and the conciliatory attitude of the Hindus and the Muslims towards the British. A purse of Rs. 501/- was presented by the guest-in-chief to the I.N.A. IN 99/1481/858-45(52)/For

My dear Biggie,

On 14.1.47 the s.s. "Egra" arrived in Calcutta with 841 passengers from Rangoon, including the nine Bengalis mentioned in the enclosed list, of whom only one, Sl. No. 8-Mrinal Kanti Banarji, appears to have joined the I.N.A. The latter is apparently identical with the subject of your letter No: D.A.-7-VI dated 15.5.46 and probably returned to Rangoon some time after March last.

Bidhu Bhusan Deb Sl. 7 is the father of Tokyo trained I.N.A. cadet Bimal Kishore Deb mentioned in my letter No. 1046 dated 11.1.46.

Kindly let me know if there is anything on record against these Bengalis. There were no other known I.N.A. or I.I.L. member on board.

Yours sincerely,
